PLAINTIFF'S ORIGINAL PETITION, JURY DEMAND, AND REQUEST FOR DISCLOSURE

TO THE HONORABLE JUDGE OF SAID COURT:

COMES NOW, Michael J. Hoover, ("Plaintiff"), and files Plaintiff's Original Petition, Jury Demand, and Request for Disclosure, complaining of Allstate Texas Lloyd's ("Allstate") and Michael Paul Bellinghausen ("Bellinghausen") (or collectively "Defendants") and for cause of action, Plaintiff respectfully shows the following:

DISCOVERY CONTROL PLAN

1. Plaintiff intends to conduct discovery under Level 3, Texas Rules of Civil Procedure 190.4.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff, Michael J. Hoover, resides in Harris County, Texas.
3. Defendant, Allstate Texas Lloyd's, is a Texas insurance company, engaged in the business of insurance in the State of Texas. Plaintiff requests service of citation upon Allstate, through its registered agent for service: c/o C T Corporation System, 1999 Bryan Street, Suite 900, Dallas, Texas 75201-3136. Plaintiff requests service at this time.
4. Defendant Michael Paul Bellinghausen is an individual resident of Fort Worth, Texas.

Bellinghausen may be served with citation at the address listed with the Texas Department of Insurance: 55001 Yellow Birch Drive, Fort Worth, Texas 76244-7514. Plaintiff requests service at this time.

JURISDICTION

5. The Court has jurisdiction over Allstate because this Defendant engages in the business of insurance in the State of Texas, and the causes of action arise out of Allstate's business activities in the state, including those in Harris County, Texas, with reference to this specific case.
6. The Court has jurisdiction over Bellinghausen because this Defendant engages in the business of adjusting insurance claims in the State of Texas, and the causes of action arise out of this Defendant's business activities in the State of Texas, including those in Harris County, Texas, with reference to this specific case.

VENUE

7. Venue is proper in Harris County, Texas because the insured property is located in Harris County, Texas, and all or a substantial part of the events giving rise to this lawsuit occurred in Harris County, Texas. TEX. CIV. PRAC. & REM. CODE § 15.032.

FACTS

8. Plaintiff asserts claims for breach of contract, common law bad faith, violations of sections 541 and 542 of the Texas Insurance Code, and violations of the Texas DTPA.
9. Plaintiff owns an Allstate Texas Lloyd's insurance policy, number 936 018 428 ("the Policy"). At all relevant times, Plaintiff owned the insured premises located at 16222 Los Altos Drive Houston, Texas 77083 ("the Property").

10. Allstate Texas Lloyd's or its agent sold the Policy, insuring the Property, to Plaintiff. Allstate Texas Lloyd's represented to Plaintiff that the Policy included hail and windstorm. On or about May 9, 2019, the Property sustained extensive damage resulting from a severe storm that passed through the Houston/Harris County, Texas area.
11. In the aftermath of the hail and windstorm, Plaintiff submitted a claim to Allstate against the Policy for damage to the Property. Allstate assigned claim number 0553477308 PLT to Plaintiff's claim.
12. Plaintiff asked Allstate to cover the cost of damage to the Property pursuant to the Policy.
13. Allstate hired or assigned its agent, Bellinghausen, to inspect and adjust the claim. Bellinghausen conducted an inspection on or about July 21, 2019, according to the information contained in his estimate. Bellinghausen's findings generated an estimate of damages totaling $10,721.17. After application of depreciation and Plaintiff's $2,123.00 policy deductible, Plaintiff was left without adequate funds to make repairs on the entirety of his claim.
14. Allstate, through its agent, Bellinghausen, conducted a substandard and improper inspection of the Property, which grossly undervalued the cost of repairs in its estimate and yielded an unrealistic amount to underpay coverage.
15. Allstate and Bellinghausen have ultimately refused full coverage which includes, but is not limited to, replacement of the roof and additional exterior damage. Specifically, Bellinghausen found damage to only the ridge edge cap and ridge cap of Plaintiff's roof. The third-party inspector hired to review the damage to the Property found damage to both the roof and corrugated roofing. In addition, the third-party inspector found damage to counter flashings, exhaust caps, digital satellite system, drain cover that were completely absent from Bellinghausen's estimate. The storm compromised the integrity of the roof allowing water to travel into and cause damage to the interior of the Property.

16. The damage to Plaintiff's Property is currently estimated at $33,840.43.
17. Bellinghausen had a vested interest in undervaluing the claims assigned to him by Allstate in order to maintain his employment. The disparity in the number of damaged items in his report compared to that of the third-party inspector's as well as the difference in valuation is evidence of unfair claims handling practices on the part of Bellinghausen.
18. Furthermore, Bellinghausen was aware of Plaintiff's deductible prior to inspecting the Property. Bellinghausen had advanced knowledge of the damages he needed to document in order to be able to deny the claim.
19. Bellinghausen misrepresented the actual amount of damage Plaintiff's Property sustained in addition to how much it would cost to repair the damage. Bellinghausen made these misrepresentations as a licensed Texas adjuster with the hope that Plaintiff would rely on his expertise and accept the bad faith estimate as a true representation of the damages.
20. After reviewing Plaintiff's Policy, Bellinghausen misrepresented that the damage was caused by non-covered perils. Bellinghausen used his expertise to fabricate plausible explanations for why visible damage to Plaintiff's Property would not be covered under the policy.
21. As stated above, Allstate and Bellinghausen improperly and unreasonably adjusted Plaintiff's claim. Without limitation, Allstate and Bellinghausen misrepresented the cause of, scope of, and cost to repair damages to Plaintiff's Property, as well as the amount of insurance coverage for Plaintiff's claim or loss under the Policy.

22. Allstate and Bellinghausen made these and other false representations to Plaintiff, either knowingly or recklessly, as a positive assertion, without knowledge of the truth. Allstate and Bellinghausen made these false representations with the intent that Plaintiff act in accordance with the misrepresentations regarding the grossly deficient damage and repair estimates prepared Bellinghausen.
23. Plaintiff relied on Allstate and Bellinghausen's misrepresentations, including but not limited to those regarding coverage, the cause of, scope of, and cost to repair the damage to Plaintiff's Property. Plaintiff's damages are the result of Plaintiff's reliance on these misrepresentations.
24. Upon receipt of the inspection and estimate reports from Bellinghausen, Allstate failed to assess the claim thoroughly. Based upon Bellinghausen's grossly unreasonable, intentional, and reckless failure to investigate the claim properly prior to underpaying coverage, Allstate failed to provide coverage due under the Policy, and Plaintiff suffered damages.
25. Because Allstate and Bellinghausen failed to provide coverage for Plaintiff's insurance claim, Plaintiff has been unable to complete any substantive repairs to the Property. This has caused additional damage to Plaintiff's Property.
26. Furthermore, Allstate and Bellinghausen failed to perform their contractual duties to Plaintiff under the terms of the Policy. Specifically, Bellinghausen performed an unreasonable and substandard inspection that allowed Allstate to refuse to pay full proceeds due under the Policy, although due demand was made for an amount sufficient to cover the damaged Property, and all conditions precedent to recover upon the Policy were carried out by Plaintiff.

27. Allstate and Bellinghausen's misrepresentations, unreasonable delays, and continued denials constitute a breach of the statutory obligations under Chapters 541 and 542 of the Texas Insurance Code. Thus, the breach of the statutory duties constitutes the foundation of a breach of the insurance contract between Defendant and Plaintiff.
28. Allstate's and Bellinghausen's conduct constitutes a violation of the Texas Insurance Code, Unfair Settlement Practices. TEX. INS. CODE §541.060(a) (1). Allstate and Bellinghausen have failed to settle Plaintiff's claim in a fair manner, although they were aware of their liability to Plaintiff under the Policy. Specifically, Allstate and Bellinghausen have failed to, in an honest and fair manner, balance their own interests in maximizing gains and limiting disbursements, with the interests of Plaintiff by failing to timely pay Plaintiff coverage due under the Policy.
29. Allstate's and Bellinghausen's conduct constitutes a violation of the Texas Insurance Code, Unfair Settlement Practices. TEX. INS. CODE §541.060(a) (2) (A). Allstate and Bellinghausen failed to provide Plaintiff a reasonable explanation for underpayment of the claim.
30. Additionally, after Allstate received statutory demand on or about October 28, 2019, Allstate has not communicated that any future settlements or payments would be forthcoming to pay for the entire loss covered under the Policy, nor did it provide any explanation for failing to settle Plaintiff's claim properly.
31. Allstate's and Bellinghausen's conduct constitutes a violation of the Texas Insurance Code, Unfair Settlement Practices. TEX. INS. CODE §541.060(a)(4). Bellinghausen performed a biased and intentionally substandard inspection designed to allow Allstate to refuse to provide full coverage to Plaintiff under the Policy.

32. Specifically, Allstate and Bellinghausen performed an outcome-oriented investigation of Plaintiff's claims, which resulted in a biased, unfair, and inequitable evaluation of Plaintiff's losses on the Property.
33. Allstate's conduct constitutes a violation of the Texas Insurance Code, Prompt Payment of Claims. TEX. INS. CODE §542.055. Due to Bellinghausen subpar inspection, Allstate failed to reasonably accept or deny Plaintiff's full and entire claim within the statutorily mandated time after receiving all necessary information.
34. Allstate's conduct constitutes a violation of the Texas Insurance Code, Prompt Payment of Claims. TEX. INS. CODE §542.056. Due to Bellinghausen's intentional undervaluation of Plaintiff's claims, Allstate failed to meet its obligations under the Texas Insurance Code regarding timely payment of the claim. Specifically, Bellinghausen's understatement of the damage to the Property caused Allstate to delay full payment of Plaintiff's claim longer than allowed, and Plaintiff has not received rightful payment for Plaintiff's claim.
35. Allstate's and Bellinghausen's wrongful acts and omissions have forced Plaintiff to retain the professional services of the attorneys and law firm representing him with respect to these causes of action.

CAUSES OF ACTION AGAINST DEFENDANT
ALLSTATE TEXAS LLOYD'S

36. All paragraphs from the fact section of this petition are hereby incorporated into this section.

BREACH OF CONTRACT

37. Allstate is liable to Plaintiff for intentional violations of the Texas Insurance Code, and intentional breach of the common law duty of good faith and fair dealing. It follows, then, that the breach of the statutory duties constitutes the foundation of an intentional breach of the insurance contract between Allstate and Plaintiff.
38. Allstate's failure and/or refusal to pay adequate coverage as obligated under the Policy, and under the laws of the State of Texas, constitutes a breach of Allstate's insurance contract with Plaintiff.

NONCOMPLIANCE WITH THE TEXAS INSURANCE CODE:
UNFAIR SETTLEMENT PRACTICES

39. Allstate's conduct constitutes multiple violations of the Texas Insurance Code, Unfair Settlement Practices. TEX. INS. CODE §541.060(a). All violations under this article are actionable by TEX. INS. CODE §541.151.
40. Allstate's unfair settlement practice of misrepresenting to Plaintiff material facts relating to coverage constitutes an unfair method of competition and a deceptive act or practice in the business of insurance. TEX. INS. CODE §541.060(a) (1).
41. Allstate's unfair settlement practice of failing to attempt in good faith to make a prompt, fair, and equitable settlement of the claim, even though Allstate's liability under the Policy was reasonably clear, constitutes an unfair method of competition and a deceptive act or practice in the business of insurance. TEX. INS. CODE §541.060(a) (2) (A).

42. Allstate's unfair settlement practice of failing to provide Plaintiff a prompt and reasonable explanation of the basis in the Policy, in relation to the facts or applicable law, for underpayment and denial of the claim, constitutes an unfair method of competition and a deceptive act or practice in the business of insurance. TEX. INS. CODE §541.060(a) (3).
43. Allstate's unfair settlement practice of refusing to pay Plaintiff's full claim without conducting a reasonable investigation constitutes an unfair method of competition and a deceptive act or practice in the business of insurance. TEX. INS. CODE §541.060(a) (7).

NONCOMPLIANCE WITH THE TEXAS INSURANCE CODE: THE PROMPT PAYMENT OF CLAIMS

44. Allstate's conduct constitutes multiple violations of the Texas Insurance Code, Prompt Payment of Claims. All violations made under this article are actionable under TEX. INS. CODE §542.060.
45. Allstate's delay in paying Plaintiff's claim following receipt of all items, statements, and forms reasonably requested and required, for longer than the amount of time provided, constitutes a non-prompt payment of the claim. TEX. INS. CODE §542.058.

BREACH OF THE DUTY OF GOOD FAITH AND FAIR DEALING

46. Allstate's conduct constitutes a breach of the common law duty of good faith and fair dealing owed to an insured in insurance contracts.
47. Allstate's failure to adequately and reasonably investigate and evaluate Plaintiff's claim, even though Allstate knew or should have known by the exercise of reasonable diligence that liability was reasonably clear, constitutes a breach of the duty of good faith and fair dealing.

DTPA VIOLATIONS

48. Allstate's conduct constitutes multiple violations of the Texas Deceptive Trade Practices Act ("DTPA"), TEX. BUS. & COM. CODE 17.41-63. Plaintiff is a consumer of goods and services provided by Allstate pursuant to the DTPA. Plaintiff has met all conditions precedent to bring this cause of action against Allstate. Specifically, Allstate's violations of the DTPA include, without limitation, the following matters:
- A. By its acts, omissions, failures, and conduct, Allstate has violated sections 17.46(b)(2), (5), (7), (9), (12), (20) and (24) of the DTPA. Allstate's violations include, (1) unreasonable delays in the investigation, adjustment, and resolution of Plaintiff's claim, (2) failure to give Plaintiff the benefit of the doubt, and (3) failure to pay for the proper repair of Plaintiff's property when liability has become reasonably clear, which gives Plaintiff the right to recover under section 17.46(b)(2).
  - B. Allstate represented to Plaintiff that the Policy and Allstate's adjusting agent and investigative services had characteristics or benefits they did not possess, which gives Plaintiff the right to recover under section 17.46(b)(5) of the DTPA.
  - C. Allstate represented to Plaintiff that Allstate's Policy and adjusting services were of a particular standard, quality, or grade when they were of another, in violation of section 17.46(b)(7) of the DTPA.

- D. Allstate advertised the Policy and adjusting services with the intent not to sell them as advertised, in violation of section 17.46(b)(9) of the DTPA.
  - E. Allstate breached an express warranty that the damages caused by wind and hail would be covered under the Policy. This breach entitles Plaintiff to recover under sections 17.46(b) (12) and (20) and 17.50(a) (2) of the DTPA.
  - F. Allstate's actions are unconscionable in that Allstate took advantage of Plaintiff's lack of knowledge, ability, and experience to a grossly unfair degree. Allstate's unconscionable conduct gives Plaintiff a right to relief under section 17.50(a) (3) of the DTPA; and
  - G. Allstate's conduct, acts, omissions, and failures, as described in this petition, are unfair practices in the business of insurance in violation of section 17.50(a)(4) of the DTPA.
49. Each of the above-described acts, omissions, and failures of Allstate is a producing cause of Plaintiff's damages. All of Allstate's acts, omissions, and failures were committed "knowingly" and "intentionally," as defined by the Texas Deceptive Trade Practices Act.

CAUSES OF ACTION AGAINST DEFENDANT MICHAEL PAUL BELLINGHAUSEN

NONCOMPLIANCE WITH THE TEXAS INSURANCE CODE: UNFAIR SETTLEMENT PRACTICES

- 50. All allegations above are incorporated herein.
- 51. Bellinghausen's conduct constitutes multiple violations of the Texas Insurance Code, Unfair Claim Settlement Practices Act. TEX. INS. CODE §541.060(a).

52. Bellinghausen is individually liable for his unfair and deceptive acts, irrespective of the fact that he was acting on behalf of Allstate, because Bellinghausen is a “person,” as defined by TEX. INS. CODE §541.002(2).
53. Bellinghausen knowingly underestimated the amount of damage to the Property. As such, Bellinghausen failed to adopt and implement reasonable standards for the investigation of the claim arising under the Policy. TEX. INS. CODE §542.003(3).
54. Furthermore, Bellinghausen did not attempt in good faith to affect a fair, prompt, and equitable settlement of the claim. TEX. INS. CODE §542.003(4).
55. Bellinghausen’s unfair settlement practice of failing to provide Plaintiff a prompt and reasonable explanation of the basis in the Policy, in relation to the facts or applicable law, for partial denial of the claim, also constitutes an unfair method of competition and an unfair and deceptive act or practice. TEX. INS. CODE §541.060(a)(3).
56. Bellinghausen’s unfair settlement practice of failing to attempt in good faith to make a prompt, fair, and equitable settlement of the claim, even though liability under the Policy was reasonably clear, constitutes an unfair method of competition and a deceptive act or practice in the business of insurance. TEX. INS. CODE §541.060(a)(2)(A).

DTPA VIOLATIONS

57. All allegations above are incorporated herein.
58. Bellinghausen’s conduct constitutes multiple violations of the Texas Deceptive Trade Practices Act (“DTPA”), TEX. BUS. & COM. CODE 17.41–63. Plaintiff is a consumer of goods and services provided by Bellinghausen pursuant to the DTPA. Plaintiff has met all conditions precedent to bringing this cause of action against Bellinghausen.

Specifically, Bellinghausen's violations of the DTPA include the following matters:

- A. By this Defendant's acts, omissions, failures, and conduct, Bellinghausen has violated sections 17.46(b)(2), (5), and (7) of the DTPA. Bellinghausen's violations include, (1) failure to give Plaintiff the benefit of the doubt, and (2) failure to write up an estimate reflecting the proper repair of Plaintiff's Property when liability has become reasonably clear, which gives Plaintiff the right to recover under section 17.46(b)(2).
- B. Bellinghausen represented to Plaintiff that the Policy and his adjusting and investigative services had characteristics or benefits they did not possess, which gives Plaintiff the right to recover under section 17.46(b)(5) of the DTPA.
- C. Bellinghausen represented to Plaintiff that the Policy and his adjusting services were of a particular standard, quality, or grade when they were of another, in violation of section 17.46(b)(7) of the DTPA.
- D. Bellinghausen's actions are unconscionable in that Bellinghausen took advantage of Plaintiff's lack of knowledge, ability, and experience to a grossly unfair degree. Bellinghausen's unconscionable conduct gives Plaintiff a right to relief under section 17.50(a)(3) of the DTPA; and
- E. Bellinghausen's conduct, acts, omissions, and failures, as described in this petition, are unfair practices in the business of insurance in violation of section 17.50(a)(4) of the DTPA.

59. Each of Bellinghausen's above-described acts, omissions, and failures is a producing cause of Plaintiff's damages. All acts, omissions, and failures were committed "knowingly" and "intentionally" by Bellinghausen, as defined by the Texas Deceptive Trade Practices Act. TEX. BUS. & COM. CODE 17.45.

KNOWLEDGE

60. Defendants made each of the acts described above, together and singularly, "knowingly," as defined in the Texas Insurance Code, and each was a producing cause of Plaintiff's damages described herein.

WAIVER AND ESTOPPEL

61. Defendants waived and are estopped from asserting any coverage defenses, conditions, exclusions, or exceptions to coverage not contained in any reservation of rights letter to Plaintiff.

DAMAGES

62. The damages caused to the Property have not been properly addressed or repaired since the claim was made, causing further damage to the Property, and undue hardship and burden to Plaintiff. These damages are a direct result of Defendant's mishandling of Plaintiff's claims in violation of the laws set forth above.
63. Plaintiff currently estimates that actual damages to the Property under the Policy are $33,840.43.
64. Plaintiff would show that all of the aforementioned acts, taken together or singularly, constitute the producing causes of the damages sustained. The above-described acts, omissions, failures, and conduct of Defendants have caused Plaintiff's damages, which include, without limitation, the cost to properly repair Plaintiff's Property and any investigative and engineering fees incurred.

65. For breach of contract, Plaintiff is entitled to regain the benefit of his bargain, which is the amount of his claims, consequential damages, together with attorney's fees.
66. For noncompliance with the DTPA and Texas Insurance Code, Unfair Settlement Practices, Plaintiff is entitled to actual damages, which include the loss of benefits owed pursuant to the Policy, mental anguish, court costs, and attorney's fees. For knowing and intentional conduct of the acts described above, Plaintiff asks for three (3) times his actual damages. TEX. INS. CODE §541.152 and TEX. BUS. & COM. CODE 17.50(b) (1).
67. For noncompliance with Texas Insurance Code, Prompt Payment of Claims, Plaintiff is entitled to the amount of his claims, plus an eighteen percent (10%) per annum penalty on those claims, as damages, as well as pre-judgment interest and reasonable attorney's fees. TEX. INS. CODE §542.060.
68. For breach of the common law duty of good faith and fair dealing, Plaintiff is entitled to compensatory damages, including all forms of loss resulting from Defendant's breach of duty, such as additional costs, economic hardship, losses due to the nonpayment of the amount Allstate owed, exemplary damages, and damages for emotional distress.
69. Defendant's breach of the common law duty of good faith and fair dealing was committed intentionally, with a conscious indifference to Plaintiff's rights and welfare, and with "malice," as that term is defined in Chapter 41 of the Texas Civil Practices and Remedies Code. These violations are the type of conduct which the State of Texas protects its citizens against by the imposition of exemplary damages. Therefore, Plaintiff seeks the recovery of exemplary damages in an amount determined by the finder of fact sufficient to punish Defendants for their wrongful conduct, and to set an example to deter Defendants and others from committing similar acts in the future.

70. For the prosecution and collection of this claim, Plaintiff has been compelled to engage the services of the attorneys subscribed to this pleading. Therefore, under Chapter 38 of the Texas Civil Practices and Remedies Code, sections 541 and 542 of the Texas Insurance Code, and section 17.50 of the DTPA, Plaintiff is entitled to recover a sum for the reasonable and necessary services of Plaintiff's attorneys in the preparation and trial of this action, including any appeals to the Court of Appeals and/or the Supreme Court of Texas.
71. As required by Rule 47(b) of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, Plaintiff's counsel states that the damages sought are in an amount within the jurisdictional limits of this Court. As required by Rule 47(c)(4) of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure, Plaintiff's counsel states that Plaintiff seeks only monetary relief of less than $100,000.00, including damages of any kind, penalties, costs, expenses, pre-judgment interest, and attorney fees. A jury will ultimately determine the monetary relief actually awarded, however. Plaintiff also seeks pre-judgment and post-judgment interest at the highest legal rate.

REQUESTS FOR DISCLOSURE

72. Under Texas Rules of Civil Procedure 190 and 194, Plaintiff requests that Defendants disclose, within fifty (50) days from the date this request is served, the information or material described in Rules 190.2(b)(6) and 194.2.

JURY DEMAND

73. Plaintiff hereby requests a jury trial for all causes of action alleged herein, tried before a jury consisting of citizens residing in Harris County, Texas. Plaintiff hereby tenders the appropriate jury fee.

PRAYER

Plaintiff prays that Defendants, Allstate Texas Lloyd's and Michael Paul Bellinghausen, be cited and served to appear and that upon trial hereof, Plaintiff Michael J. Hoover, recovers from Defendants, Allstate Texas Lloyd's and Michael Paul Bellinghausen such sums as would reasonably and justly compensate Plaintiff in accordance with the rules of law and procedure, as to actual, consequential, and treble damages under the Texas Insurance Code and Texas Deceptive Trade Practices Act, and all punitive, additional, and exemplary damages as may be found. In addition, Plaintiff requests the award of attorney's fees for the trial and any appeal of this case, for all costs of Court expended on Plaintiff's behalf, for pre-judgment and post-judgment interest as allowed by law, and for any other relief, at law or in equity, to which Plaintiff may show himself justly entitled.
